County Attorpey Eugene Graves yesterday attended Justice Gholson's court on the Blandville road. Sam Griffith and Tony Lee, colored, were fined $5 and costs for fighting.

POLICE COURT.

Jim Jones and Frank Mason, colored, who seemed to have made a practice of buying stoves from installment houses and selling them before they had paid for them, were held over to the grand jury this morning under a $300 bond for obtaining money by false pretenses.

The case against E. B. Marlin, alias Marshall, for passing a forged check, was continued. He is the man arrested at Central City and returned here by Captain Woods yesterday.

Will Owens, colored, was dismissed of the charge of robbery but is being held for detaining a woman against her will. The warrant for robbery was filed away which means the same as dismissal as he could not be identified as the man who robbed Farmer Williams. The woman who claims to have been detained is Susie Rudder, colored, and she has never procured a warrant. This is alleged to have happened five months ago and the police are working on the case.

Mary Clements, white, was granted a continuance on the charge of breach of the peace. It is alleged she used abusive language towards a boarder.

The case against Richard Yeltems, white, charged with cruelty to ani mals, was continued.

Albert Jackson, colored, was given 30 days in city jail for stealing a can of oysters from Pearson's saloon. The breach of the peace case against

Nellie King, was continued. A case against H. M. Cunningham for breach of ordinance, was disimssed

WEILLE'S FALL SHOWINGS

The Atterbury System in Men's Clothing

We are exclusire agents for the famous Atterbury System of Men's Clothing, the first ranking product in clothing. This clothing is made by the most perfect system of clothing manufacture known and every garment receives the personal attention of a high class tailor. The fabrics are carefully selected and the work all done by high art tailors. The result is a garment surpassing the products of the average tailor at $10 to $15 less.

The Best Clothing for the Boys

When it comes to buying clothes for the boys you want to get clothes that will stand the hard knocks the youngsters usually give their garments.

In the Buster Brown clothing you will find the best made for boys. It is handsome in appearance and durable in wear.

We have other lines--all good---for good boys and bad boys---clothing that has fit and style to it, and will make the little fellow look like a man.

We especially invite the mothers to visit this department and see the elegant display.

The New Ideas in Fall Overcoats

We have coats for every size man, coats for every occasion and each coat is a model of perfection.

The new styles are swagger. There are a host of them and the average man can't tell which he wants.

Then there is the fabric and workmanship. Both are of the best.

We invite you to call and let us show them to you. They are just what you want.

THE NEW HATS

We are showing the late products of those master hat makers, Young, Dunlap, Stetson and Hawes, and we make a bid for your inspection of them. Have a big line of caps, too, that are very popular.

NECKWEAR IDEAS

The fall neckwear will appeal to men of taste. It is so "tasty." There are a host of new ideas-new creations in the late styles which must be seen to be appreciated. The line we have to offer you will do to "tie" to.
